

Rev. Dr. Lisa Fidderman

Rev. Dr. Lisa Fidderman is a profound thought leader in bringing love, faith, and mental wellness together. An inspirational speaker, engaging preacher, and a thriving entrepreneur who strives to bring hope through the grace of Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the presence of the Holy Spirit. (2 Corinthians 13:14),

For a decade, Dr. Lisa has served as a Senior Pastor and a Professional Chaplain for hospitals, college campuses, and workplaces. A HBCU graduate of Hampton University in Hampton, VA, she earned a Masters of Divinity degree and Doctor of Ministry degree from Wesley Theological Seminary. She completed clinical work from Georgetown University Medical Center. She was ordained for gospel preaching at Pennsylvania Avenue Baptist Church in Washington, DC. She has an Ecclesiastical Endorsement from the American Baptist Home Missions Society for Healthcare Ministries. She is certified in Mental Health First Aid with The National Council of Mental Well-Being. She is currently a member of Alfred Street Baptist Church in Alexandria, VA.

As the Owner of Love With Finesse LLC, Dr. Lisa provides businesses and churches wellness education through workshops, trainings, and retreats. In 2023, her published book "Love with Finesse" became a top new seller on Amazon inspiring readers to embark on a healing and well-being journey for personal and professional development.

A native of Westbury, NY and Suffolk, VA, she has spent most of her adult life in the Washington, DC area with her husband Rev. Darrel Fidderman and their 2 young adults, Sakile' (Sah-kee-lay) and Darrel Judah.

You are invited to:

Follow & Like her on Facebook, Instagram, & Linked-In. Subscribe to her Podcast: "Live More. Stress Less"

Purchase her published book "Love with Finesse" which became a top new seller on Amazon inspiring readers to embark on a healing and well-being journey for personal and professional development.

